So You're Press Chairman...!

By RUTH BILLHEIMER

A press chairman is like a grilled sandwich... pressed on both sides! Her fellow good showing in print. Her club editor presses her to meet deadlines and other editorial requirements.

Veterans learn to roll with the punches. But to help the chairman starting her first year and to offer a refresher course to others, the Women's Department of the Independent, Star-News prints today the basic points press chairmen will need to know. (Clip it and keep it by your typewriter.)

The press chairman is, in the eyes of the editor, solely responsible for presenting news from her club. This eliminates confusion and duplication. Ask your president to instruct all club officers and chairmen who have news to submit it to you for processing.

An excellent plan is to come in person to the Women's Department with your first story, or come even before that, meet the staff members, outline the club's program, and ask any questions you may have. Bring with you a copy of your club roster and bulletin for the editor's reference file.

Now for the rules.

1. Don't attempt to phone your stories to the paper. (There are exceptions to this, at the editor's discretion.)
2. Find a typewriter. Get some 8½x11 typing paper. Keep your club roster and bulletin, and these instructions handy—and you're in business.
3. In the upper left corner of your 8½x11 sheet, type (Line 1) the name of the club.
Line 2—Type your name, followed by "press chairman," and your telephone number.
Line 3—The name, title and phone number of your president.
Line 4—"Release date": followed by day and date chosen for publication of the story.

4. Three inches below this information, start your story, leaving at least a one-inch margin on either side.

5. If you submit a carbon copy to the editor, it must be SHARP.

6. All copy must be typed and double-spaced.

7. Accuracy in presenting facts and in spelling names is of cardinal importance.

8. If names are unusual underline them to show that you have not made a typographical error.

9. Give complete names: "Mrs. John Jones" or "Mrs. J. K. Jones," never "Mrs. J. Jones." For the widow, use "Mrs. John Jones" rather than "Mrs. Mary Jones." Use "Mrs. Mary Jones" or better "Mrs. Bromley Jones" (her maiden name) for the woman who is divorced.

10. A woman's professional name is used when the story refers to her in her professional status; her husband's name, when used socially.

11. Write out your organization's name in full. Abbreviations can lead to errors.

12. To assist the editor, please list officers and chairmen with name first, office following: "Mrs. John Jones, president; Mrs. Samuel Brown, vice president; etc."

13. Check carefully to see that your story includes the correct day AND date of meeting; the hour; the place (giving both the name and address if meeting is held in a private residence). If you neglect this, your story may never see print. Editors do not have time to play detective.

14. Write out telephone prefixes.

15. Because of postal rules, we do not mention prizes won by chance, ticket prizes or raffles.

16. Adjectives, admonitions and opinions of the press chairmen will fall under the editor's blue pencil! For example—"Miss Blank, whose lovely voice is heard on radio and television," or "Bring your own table service" or "The program is sure to attract a large audience."

17. Always write in the third person.

18. Keep carbons of your copy (newspaper jargon for "articles"). By comparing them with the printed stories, you will learn much about preparing copy for publication.

19. With few exceptions, club meetings are covered in advance ONLY. The notice should appear in print at least 2 days before the meeting. It should reach the Women's Department one full week before publication date. (Election news should be released to the paper immediately after balloting.)

20. Do not be wordy—but do not scrimp on facts. The editor has a good blue pencil, but she cannot add the missing links.

21. When you have occasion to phone the Women's Department, identify yourself with your organization's name at the outset.

PICTURES—Requests for pictures should be made at least two months in advance of their publication date. Definite commitments cannot be made as to their use or placement. The paper does not use pictures of speakers and entertainers.

NEWSPAPER JARGON (words you'll learn to use as press chairman)—

Advance... a meeting notice which is printed before the event

Art... pictures, cuts and mats

Woman' Club of Arcadia Installs New Officers With Impressive Ceremonies

Mrs. William Adams, new president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, and members of her executive board were installed by Mrs. Bruce McAbery, a past president, at the recent installation tea in the clubhouse. The colorful ceremony was held on the stage where pastel colored gowns of the ladies blended with the glistening stars in the background.

Mrs. McAbery used the stars and the signs of the zodiac as her theme and as each officer received her charge of office a sign best fitted for her task was assigned her.

Mrs. McAbery said, "Ideals are like stars; you may not reach out and touch them but they will guide you safely to your harbor. And because the women of this club believe that you are as dependable as the stars they have selected you to be their leaders, their guiding stars for the ensuing year. This is a great honor but even a greater responsibility."

Taking office with Mrs. Adams were Mmes. Oscar Chagnon, first vice-president; Leonard C. Brooks, second vice-president; Lawrence Shepherd, corresponding secretary; Philip Sherk, treasurer; Robert Wingo, recording secretary; Albert Stuhman, federation secretary; Ernest Fuerst, parliamentarian; Joseph Watson, ways and means; Lyman Vollintine, program; James Skinner, senior trustee; Edward Verhoef, junior trustee, and Andrew Heilman, hospitality.

Mrs. Archie Wilson, retiring president, gave the president's pin and gavel to the new president.

Mrs. J. K. Weems, historian, gave a complete report of the club and departments for the year.

Pink cloths were used and arrangements of salmon pink gladioli, pink daisies, white stock and pink candles were at each table, and the new silverware, gifts of the evening department and Juniors, was on display.

Mrs. Heilman was chairman of the tea committee, assisted by Mmes. Tommie Keim, J. T. Foster, Kenneth Martin, George Clinger, J. K. Weems, Merle Parker, Kenneth Campbell, Rose Lane and Charles Johnson.

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Adams poured.

ARCADIA WOMAN'S CLUB — 'Antique, Hobby and Collectors' show held last week in the clubhouse was visited by approximately 800 people. The display of beautiful and unusual articles was an outstanding one, and the chairman, Mrs. J. W. Watson, thanks all those who helped make the show the great success that it was. The club president, Mrs. William Adams is shown in the upper picture with an exhibit entered by Mrs. William Baumann of Covina formerly of Arcadia. The display was of French period furniture, Bristol lamps and Meissen figurines. In the lower picture, Mrs. Watson and Mrs. William Gibbs, who served on the exhibit committee and who also entered a beautiful Chinese seal display, are standing before a unique doll collection. Entered by Mrs. Will Cumiskey the collection contains many quite old and rare dolls. All proceeds of the show will be used for a scholarship fund in the arts and sciences. —Arcadia Tribune Photo

By Mrs. HARVEY E.

The theme chosen for the year by Mrs. Dwight R. Young, president Verdugo District, "The Mind to Know; The Heart to Love; The Will to Serve" was the note of the first birthday celebration of the Monrovia Woman's Club hosted with brunch.

A panel which illustrated the general Federation program of reciprocity be integrated with all departmental club work, was moderated by Mrs. J. Champlain, dean of chairmen.

Mrs. George W. Cornelius, president-at-large, was guest speaker and emphasized the importance of the women of the world for unity and peace.

With pageantry arranged by George Middleton, district chairman and presented by Mrs. Chandler, dean of presidents, placed their birthday offering of folding petals of a large wheel. The presidents then stepped in to form a V formation to compliment

Arcadia Club Has Guests

ARCADIA — Goals of the world wide Federation of Women's Clubs were discussed by Mrs. Guy J. Nelson, California Federation president, on the Federation and Reciprocity Day program Wednesday at the Arcadia Woman's Club.

Activities of the five million members are directed toward public welfare, Mrs. Nelson pointed out, citing civic beautification and glasses for schoolchildren as examples of beneficial projects sponsored by club women.

Honored Guests

Mrs. Dwight R. Young, Verdugo District president, and Mrs. Robert Wah Lee, district president of the Juniors, were among the honored guests welcomed by Mrs. William Adams, Arcadia Club president. A capacity crowd, including presidents of other clubs and past presidents of the Arcadia club, attended the annual event.

Table decorations, supervised by Mrs. Clark Bridgman, featured manzanita branches, spring flowers and miniature dolls. Favors were miniature flower-adorned hats and sachets.

Program Feature

Three talented Arcadia club members, Bette Van Day, Dorothy Greiner and Sally Manley, presented excerpts from the operetta, "Hansel and Gretel." Each of the trio has made her debut professionally and has sung leading roles in operas or operettas from Broadway to California.

Additional highlights of the program were numbers by the woman's club chorus and selections by Mes. Leroy Anderson, violinist; Clark Bridgman, flutist; Ahlert Stuhman, pianist, and A. M. Laray, vocalist.

Juniors Present Fashion Parade At Arcadia Woman's Club Meet

One of the most enjoyable programs of the Arcadia Woman's Club year was one presented recently by the Junior Club members, who put on a fashion show featuring frocks, suits, sun clothes, cocktail and play dresses, as well as many garments they had made for their children.

Mrs. Lee H. Darrow was commentator, and described all showings as to material and cost, as well as patterns used. Many were original designs.

Mrs. William Adams welcomed the Junior Club Executive Board and many of their members. Mrs. E. L. Schaar, Junior Club president, introduced her board, Mmes. Robert Dahlquist, Kenneth Anderson, Russell Farnam, LaVerne Hubbard, Jack McCartyville, Lawrence Keeley, Lillian Dahl and Frank Clark.

Luncheon

Buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. James Skinner and Mrs. Ahlert Sturman and their committee, Mmes. Irwin Logan, Wayne Jones, Thomas Hughes, J. R. Sevrin, Frank Clark, Earl Towseley, William Orr, Richard Cole, Ralph George, Rose Lane and R. E. Hadady.

Juniors decorated the tables in the Easter theme of pink and white, and after luncheon, Mrs. Schaar presented the Senior Club with two new metal banquet tables.

Mrs. Adams held a short business meeting after the program in order that action might be taken on a resolution prepared by Mrs.

Bruce McAbery, safety chairman, who said that while in cities and large communities the drivers of ambulances and other vehicles who go to the aid of the ill or injured, are well prepared to deal with the situation, in some towns the drivers are often not so well prepared, and in many cases have not had any real training in first aid.

Therefore a resolution was drawn up to be presented to the resolutions committee of the Verdugo District asking that "all persons driving or in charge of vehicles going to the aid of the ill or injured, be required to have a current certificate in first aid. Such forethought will prevent a condition being aggravated by lack of knowledge on the part of driver." The resolution met the unanimous approval of Woman's Club members.

Woman's Club Elects New Officers; Duo-Pianists Present Fine Program

Mrs. William Gibbs was elected president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia at the regular luncheon meeting on April 16. Taking office with her were: Mmes. E. J. Fuerst, first vice-president; Leonard Brooks, second vice-president; William Cosgrove, recording secretary; L. V. Shepherd, corresponding secretary; Clark Bridgman, federation secretary; Philip Sherk, treasurer; E. J. Verhoef, senior trustee; Oscar Chagnon, junior trustee; Bert C. Schaar, ways and means, and Chester Anderson, program chairman.

Mrs. Gibbs has long been recognized as a leader in civic and cultural projects. She organized and was first president of the Arcadia Junior Woman's Club, and also served as vice president and president of California State CFWC, Junior Membership. She was nominated as "Women of the Year" in 1957 and has been active in PTA. She served as president of Santa Anita PTA and the PTA Council, and is a member and past president of the Assistance League of Arcadia.

The new board will be installed at the traditional installation tea to be held June 4 at 1 p.m. in the clubhouse.

Mrs. William Adams, retiring president, introduced Mrs. Archy Slover, chairman of the Music department, that presented the program.

The duo-piano selection "Concerto in A Minor" played by Mrs. Ahlert Stuhrman and Mrs. Thatcher Jordan, on concert grand pianos, was one of the finest programs to be given at the club. It was also the first time that a two-piano program was given there.

The artists gave a brilliant performance and received an ovation from the audience.

L. Weickert.

Foreign Students

Mrs. Daniel Slattery presented the club with new glass coffee and tea pots, a gift much appreciated by all members.

Club Delegates to Attend District Meet

Fourteen delegates from the Woman's Club of Arcadia will attend the Verdugo District CFWC convention to be held April 21 and 22 at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel.

The delegates include Mmes. William Adams, president; William Gibbs, incoming president; Robert Wingo, Philip Sherk, E. J. Verhoef, E. J. Fuerst, Oscar Chagnon, Lawrence Shepherd, Lyman Vollentine, John P. Ross, Bruce McAbery, Lincoln Schick, John Richardson and Rose Lane.

Verdugo District CFWC to Elect Officers At Annual Convention at Huntington

Continuing the theme of the administration, "The Mind to Know, the Heart to Love, the Will to Serve," two-year-old Verdugo District, California Federation of Women's Clubs' second convention with Mrs. F. Louis Arnold general chairman, will convene in the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel, Pasadena, April 21 and 22. Election, installation of officers and presentation of awards will highlight the two-day event.

Registration opens at 8:15 a.m. April 21 as delegates and visitors from the 25 clubs forming this district gather. Mrs. Dwight R. Young, president, will call the convention to order at 9 a.m. Mrs. Robert Greene, president of Woman's Club of South Pasadena, club hosting the convention, will introduce the Hon. Seth Miller, mayor of Pasadena, and Joel Sheldon, representative of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce. The election polls will be open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Giving a youth's viewpoint on housing, customs, education and religion by comparison of country and ours, Hannes Friedrich, an exchange student from Germany sponsored by the American Friends Service, is the luncheon speaker. Other activities at the conclave will include routine business, amendments to by-laws and reports of officers, chairmen and club presidents.

The 7 p.m. awards banquet honoring one hundred presidents and vice-presidents is the center of interest. Mrs. Robert Wah Lee, president of the Verdugo Metropolitan District, Junior Membership, will tell of the year's accomplishments of that group. Mrs. Glenn R. Cook, program chairman, will present a 30 voice boys' choir selected by audition from the various Pasadena schools, in a concert of secular and sacred numbers conducted by the prominent Dr. John Henry Lyons, former music director in the Pasadena city school system whose present main interest is his Boys' Choir.

Tuesday, state president's day, will feature Mrs. G. J. Nelson, president California Federation of Women's Clubs, as special guest speaker. Culminating two years of planning, an outstanding musical program has been arranged by Mrs. Lee O. Tenney, district music chairman, to be rendered by a combined chorus of Verdugo District club members directed by J. Arthur Lewis.

The colorful installation ceremony with Mrs. Nelson giving the charges to the newly elected officers, concludes the convention Tuesday.

VERDUGO DISTRICT CFWC TO HOLD ANNUAL CONVENTION

PASADENA — The 25 women's clubs comprising Verdugo District, CFWC, will hold their second annual convention tomorrow and Tuesday at Huntington-Sheraton Hotel.

Mrs. F. Louis Arnold is chairman of the two-day event, during which officers for the coming year will be elected. An installation banquet and presentation of awards will also be held.

Registration will open the morning of tomorrow at 8:15.

Hannes Friedrich, an exchange student here from Germany under the American Friends Service program, will compare various aspects of life here and in his country at the noon luncheon.

Tomorrow night's banquet speaker, at 7 p.m., will be Mrs. Robert Wah Lee, president of the Junior membership of Verdugo Metropolitan District, CFWC. Entertainment will be provided by a 30-voice Pasadena school system choir directed by John Henry Lyons.

Mrs. G. J. Nelson, State CFWC president, will be featured speaker at the morning session at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

New officers for the coming term will be installed at the afternoon meeting at 1:30 p.m. following noon luncheon. Awards also will be given at the afternoon meeting.

Verdugo District Convention Held at Huntington-Sheraton

Second convention of Verdugo District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, brought many awards to clubs at local level. Awards were announced last night at a beautifully appointed awards banquet at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel, scene of the two-day conclave.

Mrs. Dwight R. Young of Eagle Rock, district president, has presided at the sessions which concludes late today with the installation of officers. Officiating will be Mrs. G. J. Nelson, state president, who was due to arrive in the Southland this morning in time to speak at the business meeting.

Verdugo Officers Revealed

Installation of officers concluded last week's two-day convention of Verdugo District, California Federation of Women's Clubs, at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel.

Mrs. Guy J. Nelson, state president, officiated at the ceremony which followed luncheon in the hotel's ballroom. Likening the district to a federation flag ship and its executive board to the crew, she installed Mrs. Howard Chandler of La Crescenta Woman's Club as president.

Official Slate

Others taking office were Mmes. Alby R. Foy of Arcadia club, first vice president; Edward D. Wylie, Tuesday Afternoon Club of Glendale, second vice president; John C. Parry, Parliamentary Law Club of Glendale, recording secretary; F. Louis Arnold, Monrovia Woman's Club, federation extension secretary.

Mmes. Wilbur G. Wenslaff, South Pasadena Club, treasurer; Harold Deavel, South Pasadena, financial secretary; Warren J. Dunlap, Monrovia Club, auditor; Irvin H. Morley, Altadena Club, director-at-large, and Frank Snell, Parliamentary Law Club of Glendale, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Dwight R. Young, concluding her term as president, was presented a silver tea and coffee service by her board. Another gift was a replica of the gavel, this given Mrs. Young by her twin sister, Mrs. Willard McCallum, and by close friends and fellow club members Mrs. J. B. Atkisson and Mrs. Harvey E. Neis.

Program Feature

Entertainment, immediately following the luncheon at flower decked tables, was provided by the district's combined chorus. It was the premiere performance of this group organized by Mrs. Lee O. Tenney of Arcadia, district music chairman.

The vocalists, concluding their songs with an aria from "Carmen," were presented by Mrs. J. Arthur Lewis of San Gabriel whose husband has been serving as their director. Clubs represented in the chorus were Altadena, Arcadia, Monrovia, La Crescenta, Sunland, Tuesday Afternoon Club of Glendale and the Wednesday Morning Club.

Arcadia Woman's Club Wins Honors

The Woman's Club of Arcadia played a stellar role in the second annual convention of Verdugo District, California Federation of Women's Clubs held Monday and Tuesday at the Huntington-Sheraton Hotel in Pasadena, by winning a great majority of the awards, and by having a member elected to the district board.

Mrs. Williams, president, expressed her great joy at the achievements of the club when she returned home Tuesday "tired but happy."

Mrs. Dwight D. Young of Eagle Rock, district president, presided at the two-day meet. Mrs. Howard Chandler of La Crescenta was elected district president and Mrs. Alby Foy of the Arcadia Club was elected its vice-president.

For the first time an award was given to an individual chairman who had the most outstanding way of raising money for club purposes. This was won by Mrs. J. W. Watson, ways and means chairman, for her outstandingly successful "Antique, Hobby and Collectors' Show."

Also for the first time, an award was given to the most outstanding department in the distributing to international projects; first place for youth conservation; first place for home-craft (hobby show); Literature Department, first place for publication of prose and poetry and for study of world religions; press book, honorable mention, and honorable mention for gardening, and civic service (Arboretum).

Individual awards were given to Mrs. William Adams, president; Mrs. Oscar Chagnon, vice-president, and Mrs. Ahlert, federation extension chairman.

The Music Department's chorus joined the choral group that presented a program at convention.

Watching National Affairs

Mrs. A. Frederick Benton of Merced, newly installed president of California Federation of Women's Clubs, brings to her office a "vital interest in national affairs."

During her two-year term, the CFWC leader hopes to encourage clubs to act as "factors in national life, to keep from getting bogged down in community work; there's lack of vision when that happens."

MRS. A. F. BENTON

An active clubwoman for 24 years, Mrs. Benton is married to a dam construction engineer "who's been just wonderful about my club work."

Mrs. Benton's pet interest is adult education. She believes "public opinion is of value only when we have enough knowledge for good judgement; let's always mix both sides of an issue."

The new president is a former social worker. She attended San Francisco schools and is a graduate of U.C.

Arcadia Emblem Club Assists Home for Blind

Arcadia Emblem Club No. 317 presented a $75 check to the John Milton Manor Home for the Homeless Blind at 2826 North New Ave., San Gabriel, for the installation of a call system. Each room will be equipped to have direct contact with the matron night or day. The Arcadia Emblem Club selected the home as its first philanthropic project.

John Milton Manor Home is being sponsored by the John Milton Sightless Club of San Gabriel Valley. This is the first establishment of its kind in the state of California and it will not only serve the blind of this locality but also the blind from other districts.

Codes

The construction of the John Milton Home is progressing rapidly. The house that was on the purchased property is being brought up to state and county building codes as required, and the second new unit is almost completed.

Three blind persons and the matron are living there now, and within a short period two more of the blind will be moving in. The list of applications for admittance is growing which indicates an urgent need for a facility of this type.

Folk Dancing and Singing Program Enjoyed by Woman's Club Members

Members of the Arcadia Woman's Club had a most enjoyable time at a folk dancing and singing program held at the home of Mrs. T. McCombs and Florence Mulcahy, 2826 North New Ave., last night.

The program was presented by a very talented group of dancers and singers. The club members enjoyed the evening very much and the program was a great success.

Lucy Wyss Honored by Woman's Club

"Perfect attendance for 10 years" is the record chalked up by Mrs. Lucy Wyss, at the Woman's Club of Arcadia. At last week's meeting of the club she was presented with a decorated cake holding 10 candles, and with a paid-up membership for next year.

Mrs. Wyss, who will be 82 years old next January, is a gay, active person who brings happiness wherever she goes.

Last year, the Woman's Club presented her with a lovely pin for perfect attendance.

In addition to her club activities, and she has been a member of several departments, Mrs. Wyss is an ardent worker in the Arcadia Presbyterian Church. She teaches the 2 and 3-year-olds in Sunday School and has been doing this for 16 years. She joined the church 18 years ago and is a member of the Women's Association. She received a certificate of appreciation from the church for her service.

Mrs. Wyss is secretary and treasurer of her church circle, is secretary of the Arcadia-Temple City WCTU, is a member of the Arcadia Historical Society, and is in the San Anselmo and El Cavarillo Auxiliaries.

In addition to this she has three hobbies, makes braided rugs, for which she has many orders, makes dogbone television pillows and still makes "whiz" soap.

TEN CANDLES on the decorated cake that was presented to Lucy Wyss by the Arcadia Woman's Club denoted perfect attendance for 10 years. She is shown here with the cake which was presented by Mrs. E. J. Verhoef and Mrs. E. J. Fuerst.—Arcadia Tribune

Mrs. Richardson To Head Group For Second Year

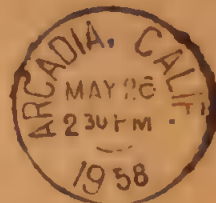

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia enjoyed a field trip at the last regular meeting, which also featured election of officers.

The women met at the clubhouse for a business meeting presided over by the chairman, Mrs. John Richardson, who was re-elected as chairman.

Others serving with her will be Mrs. Bruce McAbery, vice chairman; Mrs. Thomas Hughes, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Killingsworth, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Leslie, treasurer; Mrs. Mary Shepherd, hospitality; Mrs. Samuel Nok, courtesy; Mrs. Robert Lane, publicity; Mrs. William Moberg, hostess, and Mrs. R. S. Cole, project.

Following this the group journeyed to the new Robinson's store in Pasadena for luncheon and a tour of the store. From there, the group went to the Pasadena Museum and Art building where the ladies enjoyed viewing the beautiful art treasures and the black diamond that has just been presented to the museum.

Mrs. Caroline Keeler gave the department a gavel honoring the chairman.

Arcadia Officers Revealed

ARCADIA — Mrs. T. E. Vills, president of Los Angeles District, C.F.W.C., at the time it was divided into six districts, and currently a member of the state resolutions committee, last week installed officers of the Arcadia Woman's Club.

The exquisitely appointed installation tea was given at the clubhouse on First avenue, with Mrs. William D. Gibbs presented the gavel as new president.

Candlelight Ceremony

The ceremony was conducted on stage where a table had been centered with a huge burning candle. Each officer, as she stepped forth, lighted a herb-shaped smaller taper with the entire scene, when completed, creating a birthday cake effect.

Mrs. Gibbs, prominent young social and civic leader in the city, will be assisted by a board comprised of Mmes. E. J. Fuerst, first vice president; Leonard Brooks, second vice president; Bert Schaar, third vice president; Chester Anderson, fourth vice president; William A. Cosgrove, recording secretary; Lawrence V. Shepherd, corresponding secretary; Clark Bridgman, federation secretary; Philip R. Sherk, treasurer; Edward J. Verhoef, senior trustee, and Oscar Chagnon, junior trustee.

Tea Hour

Pink and white, the club colors, were featured at the tea at which past presidents presided. Silver services graced each end of the table which had been centered with a magnificent bouquet of delicate pink peonies and stock flanked with pink candles.

Mrs. Gibbs, welcoming guests along with Mrs. William Adams, retiring president, was in a pale blue brocade gown. Her shoulder corsage of white orchids was a gift from her husband in marking not only her club elevation to president, but their 20th wedding anniversary.

Verdugo District Workshop

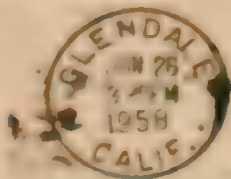

Arcadia woman's club 1. Verhoef had chaired the 2000 decorated in decorations assisted by Mrs. Robert H. Lane and Mrs. Edward Kaum. Among the 147 women attending the important workshop were five state chairmen, two past district officers, a district past president, eight Verdugo district officers, 23 district chairmen, 15 club presidents, six club vice presidents and 68 guests.

Chairman for the festive Hawaiian feast was Mrs. Polynesian. Four vice presidents of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, Committee member Mrs. C. E. Mitchell, state garden chairman, announced Mrs. Paul Ken-herb that state federation is requesting each club in CFWC to sponsor a contest to name an official flower for its community. Mrs. Mitchell also is compiling a list of public gardens to be visited in California.

Tables beautifully appointed with pineapple ferns and clusters of impatiens and palm fronds. A state working closely with the general federation, is interested in beautification of the community, first by determining its needs, then finding ways and means to encourage the improvement.

An 11 point plan for the developments of California was discussed by Mrs. J. B. Atkinson, state chairman for conservation of natural resources. Mrs. Atkinson announced that interested persons may secure this plan in booklet form by writing to Public Information Service, Department of Water Resources, Sacramento, Calif.

In line with state and general federation work, Mrs. Frances Leslie, treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Bohn, international affairs chairman for Verdugo district, reported that the district has passed a resolution requesting support from CFWC for Magazine for Friendship. Another district project for the coming year is CARE, a self-help educational program whose slogan is a dollar a month to support a child in need.

International Theme Used in Decor For Arcadia Woman's Club Luncheon

International Affairs Department of the Woman's Club of Arcadia sponsored the Oct. 15 meeting of the group, which had the privilege of hearing two guest artists, Suzy Hamblen, radio and television star, and Dr. Wendell Miller, lecturer and photographer.

Mrs. William D. Gibbs, president, welcomed members and guests and introduced guests seated at the head table, Mrs. Stuart (Suzy) Hamblen, Mrs. Harold Shepherd, press; Mrs. E. J. Fuerst, first vice president; Mrs. William A. Cosgrove, recording secretary; Mrs. Phillip R. Sherk, treasurer; Mrs. Lawrence V. Shepherd, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Alby R. Foy, parliamentarian and first vice president of Verdugo District; Mrs. N. E. Stadig, chairman of International Affairs Department, who introduced her board. They were Meses. A. L. Melzian, co-chairman; John Richardson, secretary; C. S. Snyder, treasurer; R. S. Cole, press, and Mrs. Esther M. Hanna, hospitality.

In introducing her decorating committee, Mrs. R. S. Cole, chairman, commented on the International theme used as that of "traveling piggy-back around the world" on the backs of those who have seen far places. The beautiful dolls from all nations, Ireland, Scotland, India, Korea and Japan were loaned by Mrs. N. E. Stadig and Mrs. E. J. Verhoef. The head table was decorated with travel books and globes, the stage centered with flags of all nations. Mrs. Cole presented Meses. N. E. Stadig, E. H. Dettra, R. H. Lane, C. S. Snyder, E. J. Verhoef, R. Granich, and A. L. Melzian as those assisting with the decorating.

New Song

Mrs. Harold Shepherd introduced Suzy Hamblen who sang a new song composed by her husband, Stuart Hamblen, and recorded by Coral Records entitled "Some One," based on the 19th Psalm. Mrs. Hamblen followed with the national favorite, "It Is No Secret," which she stated had been composed in 17 minutes.

Arcadia was the locale of the next member, "Pumy Roo," a story based on a touching episode of three motherless baby skunks who were found by Stuart Hamblen. These records for children are part of a new series of children's songs recorded by the Hamblens for Victor Records.

Suzy Hamblen next sang "There's a Place in God's Heart Meant Just for You" composed by the singer.

Mrs. N. E. Stadig introduced Dr. Wendell Miller who had returned from Russia four weeks ago. Dr. Miller said that he has visited 14 major cities in the U.S.S.R. in the last three years and that he has been taking a group of 20 to Russia each summer.

Common Place

Dr. Miller stressed the friendliness found in the common people of Russia, many of whom were anxious to secure his autograph, as opposed to the unfriendliness of the secret police. Wendell Miller stated that during his last visit he was constantly followed by the secret police.

Literature Department to Give Program at Woman's Club Meeting

The Woman's Club of Arcadia will hold its regular meeting on Wednesday, Nov. 5. Mrs. William D. Gibbs, president, states that the afternoon speaker will be by courtesy of the Literature Department.

The luncheon program, which begins at 12:45, will have Miss Dorothy Bowen from the Huntington Library as the guest speaker. Miss Bowen's topic will be "Reading Other People's Mail." According to Mrs. Chester C. Anderson, third vice-president and program chairman, Miss Bowen's mail will consist of a collection of letters written by famous women.

Mrs. John Richardson, chairman of the Literature Department, will introduce the afternoon speaker. Selma Raphael, who is well known for her book reviews. Miss Raphael will talk on "The Best of Everything," by Rona Jaffe.

Selma Raphael has been a resident of Arcadia 23 years, Mrs. Anderson said. Prior to that, she was principal of a school in New York City and served as president of the City Planning Commission of Long Beach, NY.

Miss Raphael specializes in study groups dealing in human relationship and gives book reviews every third Friday in her home for the Arcadians.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made with Mrs. A. V. Marchetti, Hillcrest 7-1915, or Mrs. Herbert Glidden, Hillcrest 7-8623 or by calling Hillcrest 6-3804.

Club's Literature Section Holds First Brunch Meeting of Year

The Literature Department of Arcadia Woman's Club gathered last week for a brunch and meeting, the first of the new club year. Mrs. William Moberg, with Mrs. Bruce McAbery and Mrs. Jessie Stewart, assisting, were hostesses for the day.

Mrs. John Richardson, department chairman, called the meeting to order and welcomed all present, including Mrs. Archie Wilson, district hospitality chairman, and one new member, Mrs. Rena Archie Johnson, also Mrs. Bruce McAbery's guest, Mrs. Martha Reiter from Sierra Madre.

Minutes were read by Mrs. Thomas Hughes, recording secretary, and treasurer's report by Mrs. Francis Leslie; Mrs. Jessie Stewart was appointed hospitality chairman to take the place of Mrs. John T. Simpson, who has moved away. Mrs. E. J. Prentress was reported ill and Mrs. Amy Hankins, while visiting her mother was taken ill. Members all participated in signing get well cards to these members.

There will be a bake sale at the next club meeting. The literature department also will have charge of decorating the club house for Wednesday's meeting and a committee was appointed with Mrs. Thomas Hughes as chairman.

The meeting closed with Mrs. Richardson patronizing her board and asking each one to say a word about her particular office for the year. Mrs. Francis Leslie gave the table thought for the day. Mrs. Moberg, Bruce McAbery, and Mrs. Archie Wilson.

Present were Meses. John F. Anderson, Ida Welch, Francis I. Rose Lane, Freeman Gates, Moberg, Thomas H. Marchetti, Archie Wilson, Le Stewart, Rena Johnson, Blanchard, Mary Lee Cole, Valentine, Flossie Smith, Samuel Neek, Hazel White, Jane and Bruce McAbery.

Guest Speakers Read Famous Letters At Luncheon Meet of Woman's Club

Mrs. William D. Gibbs, president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, efficiently presided over the luncheon and business meeting on Nov. 5. In keeping with the policy of the president, two guest speakers, Miss Dorothy Bowen of the Huntington Library and Selma Raphael, book reviewer of note, made their appearance.

Miss Bowen spoke on the subject and quoted from famous letters written by women and now a part of the Huntington Collection. As observed by Mrs. Gibbs, "You have given us the feeling that we are looking over your shoulder and reading other people's mail."

Miss Bowen read excerpts from a letter to Sarah J. Hale of Godey's Lady's Book fame written by President Millard Fillmore in 1852 as a result of an inquiry and plea from Mrs. Hale urging a national Thanksgiving Day. President Fillmore stated that he felt "that was not an appropriate subject for legislation." Ten years later, as a direct result of Mrs. Hale's campaign, President Lincoln proclaimed the first national Thanksgiving Day.

Excerpts from letters of Harriet Beecher Stowe to the firm of James T. Fields, publishers, written in January, 1853, were read. Miss Stowe spoke of receiving a letter with five hundred thousand signatures from English women asking "to stop slavery in America."

Legality of Vote

Susan B. Anthony wrote of the day she went to the polls "to try to vote" and to test the legality—for which she was fined $100. The day Miss Anthony made her effort to cast a vote was Nov. 5, 1872.

Announcement was made by Mrs. Alby R. Foy, first vice president of Verdugo District, CFWC, that the Woman's Club of Arcadia had won the prize for the club having the greatest amount of members travel to Hawaii under the Verdugo District ways and means project.

Guests seated at the head table and introduced by Mrs. Gibbs comprised Miss Bowen, Mrs. Chester C. Anderson, third vice president and program chairman; Mrs. William A. Coagrove, recording secretary; Mrs. Philip R. Shirk, singer; Mrs. Samuel J. Nock, Ralph Hankins Jr., Mrs. Alby R. Foy, parliamentarian and first vice president of Verdugo District; and John Richardson, chairman of the Literature Department. Mrs. Richardson introduced the board of Literature Department: Mmes. B. G. McAbery, vice chairman; T. R. Hughes, secretary; C. L. Killingsworth, K. B. Leslie, treasurer; C. W. Stewart, hospitality; S. J. Nock, courtesy; R. H. Lane, publicity; R. S. Cole, Charles Ganther, W. S. Orr and G. W. Blanchard.

Decorations

Members of the decorating committee used books held in place by bookends, outlined with chrysanthemums on tables decked with ivy. The head table had ivy interspersed with pyracantha berries and a large bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. In charge of decorating were Mrs. R. T. Hughes, Mrs. R. H. Lane, co-chairman, with Mrs. C. L. Killingsworth, K. B. Leslie and John Richardson assisting.

The Literature Department held a bake sale under the auspices of Mrs. William Moberg aided by Mmes. Leslie, Orr and Lane.

New members attending and presented by Mrs. R. W. Straub, membership chairman, were Mmes. Bernice Mason, Louise H. Ryan, Hugh Fleming, Catherine A. Jason, Orlin G. Marble and James Burns. Mrs. Lincoln Schick had as her guest, Mrs. Orville Lewis.

Antique Show

Mrs. J. W. Watson announced that the Antique, Hobby and Collector's Show will be held March 12, 13 and 14 at the Elk's Club in Arcadia. Anyone who is interested in exhibiting in any one of the three categories should contact Mrs. Watson, ELgin 5-3058 or Mrs. Bert Schaar, Hillcrest 7-7098. Mrs. Watson stated that tickets will be available for $1.25.

Mrs. Richardson introduced Selma Raphael who reviewed "The Best of Everything," written by 26-year-old Rona Joffe. Miss Raphael stressed the simplicity of the book, the "recording" type of writing used throughout.

Woman's Club Entertains Arcadia Clergymen and Wives at Luncheon

Heralding the advent of the Christmas season, twelve members of the Arcadia clergy were honored at last week's meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia. In the absence of the president, Mrs. William D. Gibbs, Mrs. E. J. Puert first vice-president, conducted the meeting. The Rev. Walter E. James was guest speaker.

Music Program, Guest Speaker Highlight Woman's Club Meeting

At the recent meeting of the Woman's Club of Arcadia, Mrs. William D. Gibbs, presided over the meeting which featured two programs.

The luncheon speaker was Charlotte Cartwright, whose topic, "Heart House Cleaning," was of progressive interest to members. A delightful group of "Musical Interludes" was presented in the afternoon by Louise Mae Espy and Patricia Genn at the organ and piano.

Mrs. E. J. Puert, first vice-president, announced a district project of a "Come and Candy Lift" consisting of cookies and candy for Christmas dropped by parachute to men on the armed services stationed in inaccessible outposts.

Mrs. Ray Allen Young explained the district program of "A Dinner of a Soldier." The club plans on raising money to equip Chinese children with paraphernalia for school. Mrs. Young reported that in some cases and child requires two coats of paint on the part of parents. One donor will supply the equivalent of the other one school kit.

Christmas Party
Mrs. N. E. Leslie gave details of the Christmas Party for club members scheduled for Dec. 17. Mrs. J. K. Womack stated all interested to register for the Bridge Club. Arcadia Tournament beginning Jan. 19. Tickets are available at $2.25 per person.

Mrs. Richardson Hosts Literature Section Meeting

Mrs. John Richardson, chairman for the Literature Department, was hostess at her home for the December Christmas meeting. The home was beautifully decorated throughout with sleighs, Santas, candles gleaming, and a lovely white tree decorated in pink and silver with a Nativity scene below.

Mrs. Richardson extended the season's greetings to all present and held a very brief meeting, after which Mrs. Richard Cole presented the program for the day.

Mrs. Samuel Nock gave two readings, "A Christmas Star" and "Operation Hemline," which gave the group many a chuckle. Mrs. Thomas Hughes, read "Confession about Christmas"; Mrs. Bruce McAbery gave two readings, "Roses in December," and "A Christmas Rush Prayer." Mrs. Lyman Vollentine read "From Fantasy to Reality," and the program ended with Mrs. Carl Snider reading "Christmas Close to Heaven."

Christmas carols were sung by the group and at the close of the meeting lovely Christmas pudding and coffee were served by Mrs. William Moberg and Mrs. Bruce McAbery, from a beautifully decorated table, with tiny sleighs and young high above the table.

SEEING THE FLOWER ARRANGEMENT
by Frances Frenzel

We see what we seek. (There are no rules in flower arranging but only principles of design which are essential to success.)

DOES THIS ARRANGEMENT HAVE -

A. DESIGN?

1. Does it have a well defined linear pattern? (Circular, Triangular, Perpendicular, etc.)
2. Is the dominant line strong and secure?
3. Do all the main lines seem to come from one starting or focal point? (Exception Morabana)
4. Is rhythm or graceful movement, created through repetition or transition of shape, size, etc.?
5. Is there dominance of one outstanding feature which is coherent to the all over design? (Could be the center of interest)
6. Are unity and contrast employed in emphasizing one dominant feature?
7. Is each part of the composition happily related in scale and proportion?
8. Does it possess that third dimension - DEPTH? (from front to back)
9. Does it have visual balance?
10. Would the design and silhouette be beautiful if they were reduced to a black and white photograph?

B. COLOR COMBINATION?

1. Is rhythm created through transition, or gradual change, in color values?
2. Is there visual color balance? (Visual weight of color is its ability to attract attention and varies where it is used in an arrangement.)
3. Is there dominance of one outstanding color value?
4. Are the proper proportions of color values used?
5. Are the colors harmonious and melodious?

C. DISTINCTION AND ORIGINALITY?

1. Is it decidedly different but beautiful and in good taste? (Unusual material, or the clever use of the usual.)
2. Does it have public appeal and clearly stands apart?
3. Is an idea, feeling, mood or story expressed?
4. Is the arrangement superior in craftsmanship? (Mechanically perfect)
5. Is the physical condition clean ("well groomed") and "properly conditioned"? (Not wilted)
6. Is the arrangement original?

D. RELATIONSHIP OF MATERIALS?

1. Are materials compatible and harmonious and seem to belong together?
2. Is there pleasing transition in the intermediary materials?
3. Is contrast of texture considered in the correlation of the materials?
4. Is there a happy relationship between the plant material, accessory, and the container as to color, texture, form, Period, scale, and use?

Arcadians Turn Out For Collectors Show

In accordance with its policy of bringing cultural and intellectual attainments of rare, unusual beauty to the community, the Woman's Club of Arcadia has concluded its lavish three-day "Antiques, Hobby and Collectors Show" which was held at the Elks Club, 27 W. Huntington Dr., Arcadia.

Much credit for the outstanding presentation must go to the whole hearted cooperation and support of many of the local merchants such as Hortense, decorator in flowers, the Music Mart, Arcadia Lumber Company, Eddie Russell's Interiors and Hinshaw's, as well as the more than one hundred exhibitors themselves," said Mrs. William D. Gibbs, president of the organization.

Mrs. Lawrence V. Shepherd served as chairman of hostesses with Mrs. Albert W. Richmond and Mrs. James P. Frazer as co-chairmen assisted by the following committee composed of Mmes. Delegates Named for CFWC District And State Conventions Next Month

Arcadia Woman's Club last week named delegates to attend the third annual convention of Verdugo District CFWC at the Huntington-Sheraton on April 16, and the annual state convention in Fresno, April 27-30. President Mrs. William D. Gibbs will serve with both groups.

Attending the district convention will be Mmes. Phillip H. Sherk, E. J. Fuerst, L. C. Brooks, A. L. Weikert, R. H. Lane, Alan Langlois, John Richardson, George Killeen, Clark Bridgman, Harold H. Shepherd, G. G. Meade and Lawrence V. Shepherd.

Accompanying Mrs. Gibbs to Fresno will be Mmes. E. J. Fuerst, Phillip R. Sherk, Alby R. Foy, A. L. Weickert and William Adams.

The Arts and Crafts Department bedecked the clubhouse with harbingers of Easter . . . spring trees fashioned of pastel maline clusters, each individually decorated. Dolls of styrofoam with jewels at ears and throat keyed the program of the day. George Stuart's presentation of "They Looked Like This."

History of France

Figures representing Louis XIV, XV and XVI of France and the history of the country under the three monarchs constituted Mr. Stuart's lecture which was developed with originality as witty and clever as the "figures" of papier-mache and clay of Madame de Montespan, Marquise de Maintenon, Madame de Pompadour and Madame du Barry which the artist showed.

Ill fated Marie Antoinette, Queen of France, gorgeously attired in the costume of her day described as "a frigate in full sail," was also one of the "figures" sculpted, painted and dressed by George Stuart.

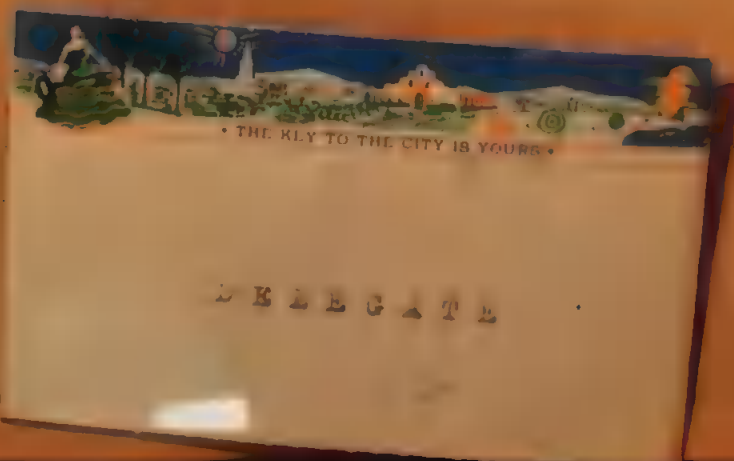

Luncheon was prepared and served by the following members of the International Relations Department of the club under the chairmanship of Mrs. M. E. Stadig: Mmes. J. C. Parnham, M. M. Hanna, A. L. Melzian, G. F. Fry, W. W. Jones, R. S. Cole, M. H. Lane, L. V. Shepherd, J. Richardson, Oscar Chagnon, D. J. Slattery and A. L. Wilson.

Head Table

Seated at the head table and introduced by Mrs. Gibbs were Mrs. Charles L. Johnson, chairman of the Arts and Crafts Department, and members of her board, Mmes. E. R. Godfrey, L. K. Campbell, F.

E. Gates and A. L. Weickert. The president of the Junior Woman's Club, Mrs. William Hurter, Mrs. Alby R. Foy, parliamentarian and first vice-president of Verdugo District, Mrs. William Cosgrove, Mrs. Bert Schaar, Mrs. Lucy Wyss and Mrs. John Renshaw, who gave the invocation, were also presented by Mrs. Gibbs.

Mrs. J. K. Weems, chairman of the Bridge and Canasta Tournament, announced that Mrs. J. M. LeNoir and her partner, Mrs. Claire Moore, and Mrs. M. C. Matesson with Mrs. William Abernathy were leading the field in bridge, with the next tournament scheduled for Thursday, April 16. Guests attending were Mmes. Florence Blaylock, Phillip Carr, Paul Hawkins, Olive Gordon, Florence Parker, Mona Emanuel, Ford Barclay and John Scull.

Literature Group Holds Year's Last Business Meeting

The Literature Department of Arcadia Woman's Club held its last meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Killingsworth.

Chairman Mrs. John Richardson welcomed members and guests after which Mrs. Killingsworth gave the Bible thought for the day and the business meeting was opened.

It was voted to present a monetary gift to the Mother Club and announcement was made that a set of books on contemporary artists of Mexico was being presented to the Arcadia Public Library on behalf of the Literature Department. Mrs. Jessie Stewart is making the gift in memory of her daughter, the late Virginia Stewart, author of the books.

Mrs. Bruce McAbery, program chairman, then presented Mrs. Florence Boller who spoke on "Humor," quoting passages from E. B. White, Pulitzer Prize winning humorist, and James Thurber.

It being the last meeting of the club year, Mrs. Richardson was presented with a gift from the department, and in turn gave each of her board members a beautiful cup and saucer set.

The year will conclude with a potluck picnic and installation in the gardens of Mrs. Samuel Nock next month.

Mrs. Baxter McBane was a guest and Mrs. E. J. Frenness was welcomed back after an absence due to illness.

Mrs. E. J. Fuerst Takes Over Duties As President of Local Woman's Club

Using as her theme "Sharing Is a Crowning Virtue of Life," Mrs. E. J. Fuerst was installed on June 10 as president of the Woman's Club of Arcadia for the 1959-1960 term.

The beautiful installation ceremony took place at the clubhouse with Mrs. Abby R. Foy, first vice-president of Verdugo District, CFWC, serving as installing officer.

Members of the board who were installed with Mrs. Fuerst were Mmes. Phillip R. Sherk, first vice-president; William S. Orr, second vice-president; Lyman G. Vollintine, third vice-president; Bruce G. McAbery, fourth vice-president; Harold H. Shepherd, recording secretary; Robert J. Gardner, corresponding secretary; Lawrence V. Shepherd, federation secretary; William Adams, treasurer; John M. Le Noir, senior trustee; and Mrs. Henry J. Funk, junior trustee. Mrs. Albert L. Weickert will serve as parliamentary.

Chairmen

Chairmen appointed by the newly installed president to serve on standing committees were Mrs. John Richardson, amenities; Mrs. Bert J. Morris, courtesy; Mrs. George Killeen Jr., club calendar; Mrs. Arnold Ayers, door; Mrs. Arthur Hughes, hospitality; Mrs. Archie L. Wilson, membership; Mrs. J. K. Weems, philanthropy; Mrs. William D. Gibbs, reception; Mrs. George F. Fry, social; Mrs. William Broughton, historian; Mrs. William A. Cosgrove, press book; Mrs. Ray Allen Young, year book; Mrs. James P. Frazer, civic.

Mrs. William D. Gibbs, presiding at her last meeting, was given a standing ovation by club members for her fine work throughout the past year.

to be given during the summer months, "A Disappearing Bridge Tournament."

Attendance Records

Mrs. Gibbs presented gifts to eight members who had achieved a perfect attendance record: Mrs. Lucy I. Wyss, completing her 11th year without an absence; Mmes. W. A. Cosgrove, A. R. Foy, J. B. Davis, F. E. Gates, W. Moberg, P. R. Sherk and E. J. Dettra.

The installation ceremony was carried out by Mrs. Foy using sparkling green blocks which were individually placed in a pyramid by members of the new board and which served to symbolize sound building for the future. Banking the stage and on the piano were superb arrangements of white Shasta daisies, gladioli, green ferns, laced with agapanthus or lily-of-the-Nile. The flowers were done by Mrs. N. E. Stadig.

An exquisitely appointed tea table carried out with a pink motif was chairmanned by Mrs. John Richardson with Mrs. R. H. Lucas as co-chairman. Assisting on the committee were Mrs. Homer E. Brown, Robert H. Lane, J. K. Weems, B. G. McAbery, Bert Schaar, A. L. Melzian, E. M. Hanna, Ray Allen Young, P. C. Ickes, W. D. Gibbs and A. L. Wilson.

Literature Group Closes Year With Garden Picnic

For their final meeting of the season, the Literature Department of Arcadia Woman's Club gathered for a potluck picnic in the gardens of Mrs. Samuel Nock last week.

Mrs. John Richardson, closing her second year as chairman of the group, expressed her thanks to members for their cooperation during the year, and in turn received a vote of thanks for her leadership.

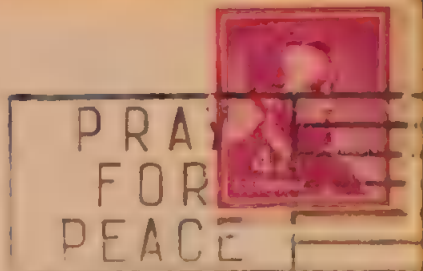

Mrs. Rose Lane presented Mrs. Richardson with the pressbook of the department's activities for the club year.

Reports were given and the year's accomplishments reviewed. Mrs. Bruce McAbery read poems and prose from the department's selection of original contributions, and cards were signed by those present to be sent to members absent because of illness.

Mrs. Francis Leslie, Mrs. McAbery and Mrs. Nock were named to a committee to nominate a slate of new officers for next year. Mrs. Archie Wilson will be acting chairman at the first meeting until elections are held, and Mrs. Moberg will act as treasurer.

Kings & Camels

AN AMERICAN IN ARABIA.....

BY GRANT C. BUTLER

with foreword by

MAJOR GENERAL RUSSELL L. MAXWELL
FIRST AMERICAN COMMANDER OF U.S. ARMY FORCES
IN THE MIDDLE EAST DURING WORLD WAR II

General Maxwell says of KINGS & CAMELS:

"a timely and informative book... honest, interesting, fascinating... a remarkably clear presentation of the problems which face the Arabs from an American point of view... a book which will help to work in Saudi Arabia and realize the importance of the area."

Camels goes behind the scenes in the private audience with the legendary Ibn Saud, the religion of the Arabs. It introduces the desert Bedouin, the Arab of the desert, on human interest, on Americans like who lived and worked in Saudi Arabia, of Sami Hussein, the first Saudi Arab to become a citizen.

Camels introduces the men and women of the Arabian American Oil Company. It brings understanding to the Arab religious and vital issues facing the Middle East. It is a book of compassion and hope. It highlights the friendship between Americans and Arabs.

Integrated with one of the very best of January. Absolutely Unrated.

Woman's Club Hosts Clergymen And Wives at Annual Luncheon

In welcoming the honored guests, Mrs. E. J. Fuerst said, "This is one of the highlights of our club year and members look forward to this opportunity to honor you who do so much for us."

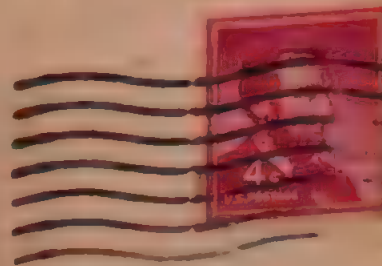

Mrs. John M. LeNoir decorated the clubhouse for the clergy luncheon.

Father Ewan brought a message of the season in behalf of all the guests.

At the business meeting which followed, Mrs. Arthur Hughes was elected recording secretary to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. Harold Shepherd. Mrs. Rose Lane

Mrs. Rose Lane reported that two boxes of cookies and candy had been packed for the Verdugo District sponsored "Cookie Lift" for servicemen stationed at isolated outposts at Christmas.

Club Department To Hear Talk on Japanese Culture

The Department of International Affairs of Arcadia Woman's Club will hear a talk on "The Impact of Japanese Culture on Western Living" when it meets next Monday at 10 a.m. in the solarium of the clubhouse.

Mrs. Chilton McPheeters of Sierra Madre will discuss music, painting and will demonstrate Japanese flower arrangements. Members are welcome to bring guests.

Mrs. Richard Cole, chairman of the Senior Club Department, and Mrs. Edwin Snoddy, who heads the Junior Department, have announced that the two departments will combine their efforts on a joint project of sending clothing, toys and other necessities to an orphanage in West Germany.

The children there are, for the most part, half American, the chairman said, and little or no provision is made by either government for their care or support.

Beautiful Decorations Highlight Annual Membership Tea of Club

The beautifully decorated clubhouse of the Arcadia Woman's club was the setting for the annual Membership Tea on Feb. 12. Garlands of greenery interspersed with pink and red camellias were used throughout the foyer as well as several heart-shaped arrangements carrying out the Valentine theme.

The tea table was covered by an exquisite linen cloth, hand-made in a Belgium convent. The cloth had inserts of point venise medallions and was edged with antique filet lace. It was loaned by Mrs. N. E. Stadig for the occasion. An artistic arrangement of white stock, red carnation and pink roses, courtesy of Hortense Flowers, centered the beautifully appointed tea table.

Mrs. Ernest J. Fuerst, president, and the following members of the Board of Directors welcomed the guests, Mmes. Philip R. Sherk, William Orr, Lyman Vollintine, Arthur Hughes, Robert J. Gardner, Lawrence Shepherd, William Adams, John M. LeNoir, Henry J. Funk and Albert L. Weickert.

Mmes. Thomas Kemp, Della Cox and A. P. Stuchman provided background music during the tea hours.

Mrs. Freeman Gates was in charge of the guest book and new members were presented with camellia corsages.

Past presidents who poured included Mmes. Charles Stewart, John P. Ross, Ray Allen Young, J. K. Weems, Earl H. Dettra, Archie Wilson and William Adams.

Mrs. Archie Wilson, membership chairman, was general chairman for the tea. She was assisted by Mmes. Archy Slover, John M. Severin, Leonard Brooks, M. R. Clark, Franklin Clark, William Ferris, Freeman Gates, Andrew C. Hellman, Arthur Hughes, Charles Johnson, William Orr, John Richardson, John Ross, N. E. Stadig and Philip Sherk.

Woman's Club to Hold Rummage Sale Friday

Mrs. Ralph George in chairman of the rummage sale the Arcadia Woman's Club will hold tomorrow at the Clubhouse. Mrs. Robert Lane has been assisting and the rummage has been stored in her garage. Women who have been sorting and will assist at the sale include Mmes. A. W. Anger, Homer Brown, W. W. Broughton, L. K. Campbell, Lloyd Hatch, Thurman Keim, Wm. Moberg, Robert Neill Jr., John Richardson, Archy Slover, B. Manthey, N. E. Stadig, B. E. Turner and Paul Malling.

Any members having articles to donate may take them to Mrs. Lane's or call Mrs. George to have them picked up.

Junior Woman's Club Gives Honor to Mrs. William Adams

The Arcadia Junior Woman's club expressed appreciation to Mrs. William Adams for her outstanding help as senior coordinator to the club by presenting her with an Honorary Life membership in the Junior club. The presentation was made by Mrs. James L. Horsley, president, at the March 3 regular meeting of the senior club, which was designated as "Junior Day."

Mrs. Adams acts as a liaison officer between the senior and junior clubs and is a line of direct information between the two presidents.

Mrs. Adams, who was very surprised at the honor, enjoys working with the juniors and gives advice when it is requested. She attends board meetings and general meetings, workshops and conventions.

The juniors presented her with a gorgeous orchid and a medallion which carries the motto "Federation."

Mrs. Adams is a past president of the Woman's club and has served the club in various other capacities in the past. She is now treasurer on the board, and is scholarship chairman for Verdugo district.

Mrs. Homer Brown Hosts Luncheon For Club Section

Members of the Arts and Crafts Department of Arcadia Woman's Club were luncheon guests Monday at the home of Mrs. Homer Brown.

Continuing their interest in a worthy philanthropy, the group met for a work session at 10 o'clock and soon many hands were busily engaged in making gaily decorated fans which will be given to elderly patients of a local sanitarium.

Luncheon tables were attractively decorated in the Easter motif with cute bunnies and the traditional colored Easter eggs.

Luncheon was served by the hostess with Mrs. Leslie Campbell, Harriet Clugston and Mrs. Scott Swirles, assisting.

Mrs. Charles Ganther, chairman, called a short business meeting and plans were completed for Arts and Crafts Day at Woman's Club on May 4. Mrs. E. J. Verhoef will have charge of decorations with Mmes. Leitz, George, Castle, and Lane assisting. Officers of the Department will be honored on that day and all members are requested to attend.

The following officers were chosen to serve during the coming year; Mrs. E. J. Verhoef, chairman; Mrs. Callie Chase, vice-chairman; Mrs. Leslie Campbell, secretary; Mrs. Harriet Clugston, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph George, project chairman.

Officers will be installed May 1 at the home of Mrs. Ganther. This will be a salad luncheon with Mrs. Leslie Campbell in charge of arrangements.

In attendance were Mmes. Freeman Gates, Elmer Godfrey, George Castle, Chas. Ganther, Harriet Leitz, Herman Bauerle, Callie Chase, Russell Augspurger, Rose Lane, William Hubbs, Scott Brown.

FLOWER SHOW CHAIRMEN of the Woman's Club Garden Department meet with Mrs. N. E. Stadig, right, general chairman in charge of the annual event tomorrow. Others, from left, are Mrs. Rose

R. Lane, in charge of plant sales; Mrs. M. R. Clark, in charge of flower arrangements, and Mrs. E. J. Verhoef, in charge of potted plants.

WOMAN'S CLUB FLOWER SHOW SET FOR FRIDAY

The Arcadia Woman's Club will stage its annual flower show at the clubhouse next Friday from 1 to 8 p.m.

Entries are free and open to the public and are required to be in place by 10 a.m., Friday. The clubhouse will also be open Thursday from 6 to 8 p.m. to receive entries.

Theme of the show will be "Earth's Jewels," according to Mrs. N. E. Stadig, flower show chairman, and the public is invited to come view the entries and meet Joe Littlefield, one of the Southland's most popular lecturers and garden consultants.

Mr. Littlefield will answer questions about personal gardening and landscaping problems. In fact, Mrs. Stadig said, visitors are even invited to bring infested plant leaves and wilted branches or pieces of grass or dichondra for Mr. Littlefield's inspection and advice.

Tea will be served and many door prizes given away.

Judging will be done in three classifications — flower arrangements, horticulture and planted material. Exhibitors must furnish their own containers for flower arrangements and specimen blooms to be displayed in containers provided by the club.

Plants may not be removed from the clubhouse until 10 a.m. Friday, and not later than 10 a.m. Saturday. Plants on potted plants must be cleaned, but leaves not

Sand Witches To Entertain At Woman's Club

A unique demonstration of sand painting will be presented by The Sand Witches of Desert Hot Springs at the Woman's Club of Arcadia on Wednesday, May 4 at 1:30 p.m.

Sand painting, which has become a fascinating hobby as well as a lucrative profession, was originally developed by the Navajo Indian. The Sand Witches will narrate the historical background of this art, exhibit completed paintings, and demonstrate the actual process. The narrator, a member of Toastmistress International, will be assisted by two helpers; all three appear in the Navajo Squaw costume.

Luncheon will be served at 11:30 a.m. Decorations will be in charge of the Arts and Crafts Department whose members are being honored at this meeting. There will be an arts and crafts display of the department's completed projects and a showing of paintings done by a club member.

MRS. MUNDY HONORED BY ARCADIA FRIENDS

By IONE PARADISE

Last Thursday the Mundy Mailbox was full to overflowing with letters, lots and lots of letters for Catherine Mundy herself when some 150 friends surprised her with a birthday luncheon at Eaton's Restaurant. Accompanying her daughter, Mary Cooper, and a friend of long standing, Mary Young, to what was supposed to be a small get-together, Catherine was ushered into the banquet room to be met with "Happy Birthday to you" from the assembled group.

Under the general direction of Mrs. Jesse Balser, who was mistress of ceremonies at the luncheon, the affair had been kept top secret, with Mmes. Ernest Mortenson, J. W. Watson, Howard Williams, Ernest Fuerst, Conrad Reibold and Robert Paradise helping with the arrangements.

The Mundy Mail theme was beautifully carried out by Mrs. Watson, in charge of decorations, with miniature silver "Mundy Mail" boxes on ivy-entwined posts, rising from small clusters of fresh flowers on every table.

WELCOME

After she had recovered from the surprise and been escorted to the head table, Catherine Mundy was briefly welcomed on behalf of everyone by Mrs. Balser, and a corsage from Hal Roach, Tribune editor, was presented her by Mrs. Roach.

Although every effort was made to avoid a "this is your life" feeling, many of the ladies gathered to honor Cathy were friends of very long standing who had been active with her in organizations before her association with the Arcadia Tribune, and there were others who had met her more recently in her capacity of Women's Editor.

Out of the past came a resume of early PTA activities given by Mrs. Ernest Fuerst (Mary Beth) followed by a "Can-Can" group with whom Catherine Mundy had appeared in a PTA musical show in 1940. Unfolding a colorful banner which read, "Minstrel Show of 1940 starring Catherine Mundy" community's "Women's world."

Mrs. Howard Williams (Beulah) presented a one-candle birthday cake with appropriate remarks after Catherine's lovely daughter Mary had carried it in and placed it in front of her mother.

Finally, speaking for friends old and new and those near and those too far to be able to attend, Mrs. J. W. Watson (Drexel) presented Mrs. Mundy with a wrist watch, inscribed "To Catherine with Love," with the date, and a fifty-dollar bill.

GUEST SPEAKER

Principal speaker was Elizabeth Goodland, Society editor of the Los Angeles Times, and long personally acquainted with Catherine Mundy. She spoke with charm and humor and expressed enthusiasm at such an expression of love and appreciation as was being shown the women's editor of the Tribune, as opposed to the usual treatment of "Why didn't my story get in?"

At the close of the program goodbyes were said in person with Mrs. Mundy standing at the exit and the "Mundy Mail" box especially for Catherine Mundy was put away among the "just-for-fun" things that good friends enjoy together.

Then she was called in to help out during busy times of the newspaper's growth when Barbara Wilcox was women's editor and Hap Everett was editor.

Catherine took over when Mrs. Wilcox left the paper, and is credited with developing the Women's Section of the Tribune into what is called the "most complete and widest read women's section" in Southern California.
